

Joshua E. Eisenberg

292 Sayre Drive, Princeton, New Jersey 08540

Cell: (443) 465-7033 • Home: (609) 452-5951 • E-mail: josh@joshfilms.com • Website: www.joshfilms.com

Objective

To obtain a career in the communications field where I can be involved in television production.

Related and Work Experiences

SpeakEasy FX, September 2008 to Present

Title: Apprentice Editor – Location: Westfield, New Jersey

- Editor for a series of animated television segments that will air on the 40th anniversary of Sesame Street
- Organize and sequence animated shots on the Final Cut Pro timeline
- Overlay animated shots with synchronized voice, music, and sounds
- Prepare initial animated shots in XSI for the animators to complete
- Responsible for the relay of information to and from storyboard artists, generalists, animators, and program Director
- Develop sound effects for show segments using Foley techniques
- Report directly to the program Director

WMJF Channel 16, June 2004 to January 2008

1. "Civil Disobedience" Television Show

Title: Producer, Head Writer, Editor, Director and Host – Location: Towson, Maryland

- Learned how to compose, script, budget, direct, cast, film and edit a television series
- Edited episodes using Media 100i, Adobe Premiere, Adobe After Effects, Avid Media Composer and Xpress Pro, and Final Cut Pro

2. "Channel 16 News" Television Show

Title: Production Editor, Talent – Location: Towson, Maryland

- Assisted in the production of bi-weekly student news program
- Wrote and delivered an on-air segment during each program

WABC-TV Creative Services Department, June 2005 to August 2005

Title: Intern – Location: New York, New York

- Obtained experience working at one of New York City's highest rated television stations
- Responsible for creating daily news promos and attended daily news meetings
- Edited promos on Avid software
- Ran teleprompter for the noon newscast
- Directed professional voice over talent for in house promo and commercial spot use

PBS Channel Thirteen Local Programming Department, November 2003 to January 2004

Title: Intern – Location: New York, New York

- Assisted in the production of weekly television shows: New York Voices and Inside Trenton
- Obtained experience and gained an understanding of how professional television shows are produced
- Responsible for organizing and classifying obtained footage
- Coordinated, setup, and met talent for interview shoots on location

Skills

- Mastery knowledge of audio and video recording, design and editing programs, such as: Final Cut Pro, Avid Composer, Avid Xpress Pro, Soundtrack, Motion, Color, Compressor, Adobe Audition, Media100i, Adobe Premiere, TitleDeko, PageMaker, After Effects, Illustrator and Photoshop, as well as other common computer applications such as Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, FrontPage, Excel, and Google Docs
- Experienced on both Windows and Macintosh platforms
- Knowledgeable of FCC rules, regulations, and broadcasting industry
- Eager and willing to work in a team environment
- Reliable, dedicated, honest, confident, friendly, personable, and meticulous to details of production

Education

Towson University, January 2004 – January 2008

Title: Student – Location: Towson, MD

- GPA: 3.32; Graduated January 2008
- Member of Student Television Broadcast Television Station: WMJF-TV
- Member of Student Radio Station: XTSR

Awards and Other Experiences

- Interviewed U.S. Congressmen and Entertainers, such as: Rep. Rush Holt, Director Bryan Singer and Rapper Method Man
- On-air television and radio announcer for college and high school sporting events
- Winner of Towson Media Arts Festival 2006: Best Television Show – "Civil Disobedience"